INTRODUCTION

This report summarizes the responses of the State University of New York constituent institutions to the biannual survey of Non-Credit Instructional Activities for July 1, 1987 through December 31, 1987.

Non-credit instructional activities at SUNY institutions has steadily increased over the period of survey administration, particularly at the community college level. One explanation for the expansion of non-credit activities and registrations is the availability of state funds to encourage community colleges to conduct training for local businesses and industries. As a result new training relationships between colleges and industries have emerged. These partnership arrangements have accounted for much of the increased non-credit instruction and registrations at the institution level.

Non-credit instructional activity is not susceptible to sharp delineation, consequently there was a good deal of local judgment regarding the non-credit activities reported on the survey. For the purpose of this survey, the following guidelines were used in determining the activities to be reported:

> All formally organized and scheduled non-credit activities which are instructional in nature and which require registration of the participants, were included. These activities characteristically exhibit a wide range of formats, e.g., courses, workshops, seminars, conferences, institutes, etc. These activities are typically organized and administered by offices of continuing education, community service, adult education, innovative studies and extension services, however, they may be organized and administered by any other division, school, or academic department of the institution. Some campuses want to include basic literary skills centers, tutorials and developmental programs in their non-credit totals. These non-credit basic skills activities can be included if they are part of a prescribed program for a student, require more than a student initiated sign-in registration and have procedures to eliminate duplicated headcount.
> Excluded were all activities which can be credited toward a degree or other formal award granted by the institution. In addition, all activities which were primarily non-instructional in nature were excluded, such as great artists series, mass media programs, lecture series, travel groups, etc. Excluded were basic skills centers or labs, tutorials and developmental programs with student initiated participation, student sign-in procedure for registration and that did not have provisions for eliminating duplicated headcount. Auditors of credit courses were also excluded.

The non-credit instructional activities listed in this publication include direct contact between instructor and student or primary training. However, in many instances, subsequent to the initial instructional activity, secondary or multiplier training effects also occur. For examples, a group of teachers receive non-credit instruction on nutrition and in turn, they use this new information in science lessons with their classes. Thus, the effect of the primary instruction is multiplied by the number of students receiving subsequent nutrition instruction. When doctors update surgical procedures, their patients benefit and in effect, the training is "multiplied." Although it is difficult to measure secondary training effects, the Cooperative Extension at Cornell University has conducted research in this area.

The Cooperative Extension System operates in 57 county based associations in New York State and in the 5 New York City boroughs. Approximately 655 professional and 350 paraprofessional staff throughout the state design, implement and evaluate Cooperative Extension instructional programs. Increasingly paraprofessional and volunteers participate in instructional activities and are prepared to function as trainers or "multipliers" in their communities. During 1987, approximately 62,000 cooperative extension volunteers directly participated in a wide variety of activities from committee work and 4-H leaders to financial counselors and master gardeners. However, annually at least 8 million people across the state benefit from multiplier training from Cornell Cooperative Extension seminars, computer-assisted learning, exhibits, tours and media experiences. For a snapshot of specific multiplier effects and a small sample of media experiences, see Appendix IV, p. 273. While the non-credit instructional activities included in this publication report only primary training in the number of registrations, it is important to remember that as Cornell has shown, a much larger number receive the secondary or multiplier training effects of these non-credit activities.

For each non-credit instructional activity reported on the survey, the following information was provided by the campuses: contact hours, continuing education value, course location, instruction type, instructor type, number of registrations, organizing unit, revenue source, subject area and target clientele. Definitions of these terms can be found following the Introduction on page xiii.

Data submitted by the campuses provide a comprehensive source of information about the State University of New York's non-credit instructional activities. Information on these offerings is available to the campuses from the Non-Credit Course system (NCC), which generates a total of twenty-one different reports. The types of reports produced and their corresponding report number are described below. In addition a summary chart of the available non-credit reports along with the detail provided in each report can be found following the Introduction on page xv.

Reports in Production as of Fall 1984

Non-Credit Course (NCC) reports 1 through 6 are summary reports of the number of non-credit activities and registrations by six categories: subject area, target clientele, organizing unit, instructional type, faculty status and funding source. These reports are available university-wide and by individual campus.

NCC REPORT NUMBER	REPORT TITLE
1.	Registrations and Activities by Subject Area
2.	Registrations and Activities by Target Clientele
3.	Registrations and Activities by Organizing Unit
4.	Registrations and Activities by Type of Activity
5.	Registrations and Activities by Faculty Status
6.	Registrations and Activities by Funding Source

NCC reports 7 through 12 are campus detail reports. Each non-credit activity reported is listed in alphabetical order by campus under the organizing category for that report (i.e. Report 7 - Subject Area, Report 8 - Target Clientele, etc.). Information printed for each activity includes: number of registrations, contact hours, continuing education units (CEU), target clientele, organizing unit, faculty status, funding source and location (on or off campus). These reports are currently available only by campus.

Since NCC reports 14, 15, 16 limit data reporting to four successive terms, they have been replaced by trend tables developed by the Central Office of Institutional Research which allow for additional trend reporting. The OIR trend tables summarize the number of non-credit activities and registrations for the State University of New York from 1983 through 1987.

NCC reports 17 through 20 are system detail reports. Each non-credit instructional activity is listed in alphabetical order under the organizing category for that report, (i.e. Report 17 - Subject Area, Report 18 - Target Clientele, etc.) information printed for each activity includes: campus, number of registrations, target clientele, contact hours, activity type, continuing education units, organizing unit, faculty status, funding source and location (on or off campus). These reports are available only on a university-wide basis.

The reports included in this publication are organized sequentially into three parts: Part I includes NCC reports 1 through 6 from a system perspective; Part II contains OIR tables 88/790, 88/791, 88/792 which provide system-wide trend data from 1983 through 1987; Part III includes NCC report 17, a listing of all non-credit courses offered at the State University of New York institutions by subject area.

Coding has been used in Part Three of this publication to report some of the information for each non-credit activity. See page xx following the Introduction for a listing of the codes used by related category and explanation.

In addition to the university-wide non-credit course information contained in this report, each SUNY campus was provided its respective campus summary reports NCC 1 through NCC 6 and its campus detail reports NCC 7 through NCC 13. Additional NCC reports are available to campuses upon request from the Office of Institutional Research. For convenience, a summary chart of the avaliable non-credit reports and the detail provided in each report can be found on page xv.

We would like to thank those individuals on the campuses who are responsible for providing this office with non-credit instructional activities data. The collection of these data requires their extensive cooperation and continued effort. We also thank members of the Central Office Staff who contributed their efforts to this report. We thank Ms. Martha Soloyna and the office she manages for entering the data from the campuses into the computer. We thank Mss. Peg Rings and Vikki Mazzone of the Office of Institutional Research for their efforts in preparing the manuscript for publication.

CORNELL COOPERATIVE EXTENSION APPENDIX

SAMPLE OF MULTIPLIER TRAINING EFFECTS
CORNELL COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SYSTEM

January 1, 1987 - December 31, 1987

Cornell Cooperative Extension operates in 57 county based associations in New York State and the five New York City boroughs. Approximately 430 off-campus staff, 350 paraprofessionals and 225 extension faculty and staff at Cornell University design, implement and evaluate educational programs. These programs have clearly stated goals, identified audiences, learning activities designed around learner needs and styles and evaluation plans. Increasingly paraprofessionals and volunteers participate in indepth learning experiences and are prepared to function as "multipliers" in their communities. During 1987, approximately 62,000 Cooperative Extension volunteers directly participated in a wide variety of activities from committee work and 4-H leaders to financial counselors and master gardeners. However, through the multiplier training effect the lives of 8 million New York State residents were touched by Cornell Cooperative Extension seminars, computer-assisted learning, exhibits, tours and media experiences. This includes the circulation, viewing and listening audiences receiving Cooperative Extension information through publications, television, radio, newspapers and newsletters.

The following examples provide a snapshot of multipliers and a small sample of media experiences.

- In New York City, 18 Master Gardeners clocked over 1,200 hours in projects ranging from working with disabled clients to prison inmates and youth at risk.

- Over 717,000 youth participated in 4-H activities. Almost 40 percent lived in towns and cities of 10,000-50,000 people. These youth acquired knowledge, developed life skills and formed attitudes that will help them to become self-directed, productive and contributing members of society. In most instances, the extension professional staff prepared volunteers and other professionals to deliver the educational program to the youth.

- Over 7,500 volunteers or "multipliers" were prepared to provide training for 73,000 public/parochial K-6 teachers who in turn reached 1,825,000 students with Nutrition Comes Alive. Nutrition Comes Alive, a nutrition education curricula was developed with support from the NYS Departments of Health and Education and the Governor's Office.

- Over 9,400 adults representing 34,000 family members participated in the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program, designed for low-income families with young children. These adults participate in a series of lessons (6-21) which are completed in 18 months or less. Approximately 15,000 youth participated in a 6-8 series of lessons. About 190 paraprofessionals and an increasing number of volunteers conduct the educational experience with youth and adults.

CORNELL COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SYSTEM

January 1, 1987 - December 31, 1987

- It is estimated that the 1,700 participants in regional and county tax schools reached 22,000 farmers, 50,000 non-farm businesses and 160,000 individual tax preparers.
- Over 38,000 adults and youth in all five New York City boroughs participated in the Urban Gardening program at 216 community sites containing 2,476 garden plots.
- In New York City, a multi-lingual audience of 300,000 had the opportunity to listen to 15 one-hour nutrition education radio programs hosted by Extension nutritionists and broadcast in Chinese, Haitian-Creole, Spanish and English.
- Over 96,000 individuals requested publications related to forest and wildlife management.
- Over 295,000 persons participated in a family financial management newsletter series mailed at determined intervals. Retirement planning series and teaching children financial management are in five parts. Savings and investments are presented in seven parts.
- Over 93,000 individuals learned about seafood nutrition concerns through exhibits staffed by volunteers. An estimated 3 million newspaper readers had access to timely research results summarized by faculty and off-campus staff.
- Approximately 11,000 children and youth participated in one of the 12 residential camp facilities or the 13 day camps. At least 450 teenagers were employed by these camps and for many, this was their first employment experience.
